

Literacy/ Reading websites.

Below are a list of websites with either book recommendations, free resources, interactive games and quizzes.

audible.co.uk - "As long as schools are closed we're open. Kids everywhere can instantly stream an incredible collection of stories, including titles across six different languages, that will help them continue dreaming, learning and just being kids.
All stories are free to stream on your desktop, laptop, phone or tablet."

toppsta.com - Website with book reviews by children, parents, grandparents and librarians.

bookttrust.org.uk - Website with book recommendations, competitions, quizzes, storybooks and games.

oxfordowl.co.uk - Free ebooks for children 3-11 years old, English and Maths activities.

thereadingrealm.co.uk - Reading Realm ipad app -

For parents, The Reading Realm offers your children the chance to explore, without any pressure, a whole host of marvellous, informative, moving, rich stories, poems and non-fiction classic and contemporary texts. Perhaps a snippet from the first chapter of a brand-new book, a short, classic poem or an extract from a non-fiction book about boats, horses or mountains will be enough to awaken, rekindle, restore or strengthen your child's interest in books and have them asking to visit the local library or independent book shop in search of new authors and books.

readingagency.org - An interactive book sorter to help children find a book to read and interactive games.

roalddahlfans.com - Lots of quizzes and interactive games.

Literacytrust.org.uk - New family zone with video and audio resources.
