

Lesson 1 Worksheet for Reading Comprehension based on the short story, 'eric' by Shaun Tan.

Complete the questions in full sentences and use evidence from the short story to support all your ideas. Remember to use the vocabulary and also the pictures to help you think about the answers. You will have to think about the deeper clues which the writer gives us and make some inferences.

1. Who do you think Eric is (the pictures may help you to think about him and where he has come from.)
2. Who is telling the story ?
3. Why do you think the family bewildered and confused when Eric left their home?
4. Why do you think Eric left?
5. Describe what the family saw when they opened the pantry door.

